DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restriction

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-9, 23-30, 41-46, drawn to a nucleic acid composition, classified in class 536, subclass 24.3.
 - II. Claims 10-22, 47, drawn to a method of detection or amplification, classified in class 435, subclass 91.2.
 - III. Claims 31-32, 55, drawn to methods of making a nucleic acid composition, classified in class 435, subclass 462.
 - IV. Claims 33-40, 48-54, drawn to a method of mutation detection, classified in class 435, subclass 6.
2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:
3. Inventions in Groups I and in Groups II and IV are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case, the nucleic acids products of Group I can be used in the amplification methods of Group II, in the mutation detection methods of Group IV, in nucleic acid purification methods, in gene synthesis methods, in library screening methods, in antisense therapy methods or in nucleic acid in situ characterization methods.

Art Unit: 1655

4. Inventions in Group III and in Group I are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)).

In the instant case, the product of Group I can be made by the method of Group III or by chemical synthesis or by enzymatic synthesis.

5. Inventions in Groups II, III and IV are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are unrelated because they differ in mode of operation, in function and in effect. Each method yields a different result using different physical steps.

6. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

7. A telephone call was made to Suzanne Ziska on March 19, 2001 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Art Unit: 1655

8. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

9. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Jeff Fredman, Ph.D. whose telephone number is (703) 308-6568.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, W. Gary Jones, can be reached on (703) 308-1152.

Any inquiry of a general nature or relating to the status of this application should be directed to the Technology Center receptionist whose telephone number is (703) 308-0196.
